Eastern Vizsla Shooting Dog Championship

By JOHN FRAYNE

THE Eastern Vizsla Shooting Dog Championship was held at the historic English Setter Club in Medford, N. J. Participants from Michigan, Ohio, Maryland, Pennsylvania and New Jersey enjoyed beautiful weather and a superb supply of good flying quail. The grounds were in excellent shape and that allowed for bird work in all the shooting dog braces.

Lunch was provided by Joseph Manning and was enjoyed by all.

The judges were Paul Byrne of Virginia and John Chokran of Hummelstown, Pa. Both gentlemen showed a great deal of enthusiasm. Their experience and good fellowship were appreciated by all.

For the third year in a row the title was garnered by Fieldway's Jack Daniels, owned by Carol Burjan and handled by Daniel, her husband. Jack again gave an excellent account of himself. Obviously Jack loves the Setter Club grounds and again had a strong race with multiple finds.

Runner-up was Rebel Rouser Sacket, handled by Daniel Burjan and owned by Tracy and Gordon Long of Salunga, Penn. Sacket was fresh from the National Vizsla Championship in Kansas. She continued her winning ways with multiple bird contacts and a good ground race.

This Championship is a cooperative effort of Vizsla enthusiasts. Everyone pitched in! Thanks go out to Frank and Cindy Hibler for putting up a judge; to Joe Manning for providing the lunches; to all who traveled many miles to participate — Gary Jagoda, Dean Nelson, Curry Carren, Big Mike, Gerry Garnsey, the support of professional Daniel Burjan. Thanks to all and if anyone was omitted, please forgive me.

Finally, I would like to thank Kasco for its support.

Runner-Up—REBEL ROUSER SACKET, 1433512, female, by Rebel Rouser Reck—Rebel Rouser Sacajawea. Tracy & Gordon Long, owners; Daniel Burjan, handler.

DERBY CLASSIC

The Derby Classic was taken by the contingent from Michigan. Due to a horse injury, the handler of Desert Storm's Desirae, Gary Jagoda, was unable to take charge. However, Dean Nelson rose to the task and Desi did the rest. Desi is owned by Barry Peterson of Michigan. Second was Kal Cam's Red Thunderboy (Daniel Burjan). Third was garnered by Gerry Garnsey's Jager's Upwind

Dolly. Both dogs had good speed on the ground and went to the likely objectives.

Northern New England Brittany Club

By RAYMOND GORMAN

ON May 16-17 the Northern New England Brittany Club held its annual spring trial at the Franklin Falls Flood Control Area at Hill Village, N. H. Over 125 dogs were run. The weather was hot and humid.

Four professional trainers supported our trial—Ben Lorenson, Tom Tracy, John Leavitt and Bob Seelye. The members thank everyone for their support and deserve a "pat on the back", especially David Hayes, Phil and Linda Ouellette; Warren and Rosemary Swage. I believe everyone had a good time.

Club members Ron Stevenson and Mike Howe were happy with their blue ribbons! Tom Tracy snagged Derby points on Ron Stevenson's Rondo's Bubba Jack and Mike Howe won the Stan Kowitz Trophy in the Amateur Walking Hunting Dog Stake with Triumphant's Midnite Thunder. Trial Chairman Ray Gorman was especially pleased on Sunday, winning both Shooting/Gun Dog Stakes with Ray's Pride of Coos and Princess Pearl of Coos, two eight-year-old littermates!
